

Neighborcare Health is the largest provider of primary care and dental services for low-income and uninsured people in Seattle. We serve more than 65,000 patients each year in 28 medical, dental and school-based clinics.

Why choose Neighborcare Health?

We provide a health care home.

Neighborcare Health is committed to creating a health care home for our patients that includes medical, dental and mental health care. In a health care home, patients and their families build long-term relationships with a care team that understands their history, culture, family and unique health needs.

We speak your language.

Our staff members speak multiple languages, including: Amharic, Arabic, Laotian, Mandarin, Spanish, Somali, Tigrigna, Thai, Vietnamese and English.

We're in your neighborhood.

We provide quality health care in your neighborhood. We have clinics from North Seattle and Lake City to Columbia City and Rainier Beach, and from High Point to Central Seattle. We also have clinics in Seattle's elementary, middle and high schools. We see patients in shelters, churches and schools, as well as our own neighborhood clinics.

We can help with fees and insurance.

We believe that quality health care should be available to everyone. No one is denied services due to ability to pay. We accept Washington Apple Health (Medicaid), Medicare and most types of insurance. We ask all uninsured patients to meet with an eligibility specialist to determine if they are eligible for public insurance through Washington Healthplanfinder or a sliding fee discount from Neighborcare Health.

- The sliding scale fee for a medical appointment starts at $20.
- The sliding scale fee for a medical appointment starts at $45.
- We offer a $5 discount if the fee is paid at the time of your appointment.
